

Fairfield County Children's Choir Member Agreement 2011/2012

Your child's participation carries with it privileges, responsibilities and obligations. As space in the FCCC is limited, please carefully consider your commitment to excellent attendance for the full year. Please read the entire handbook before signing this form and return it to Barbara Brauner by the September 28th rehearsal.

We agree with the conditions and guidelines set forth in this handbook and understand the commitment, responsibility and dedication needed to become and remain a member of the FCCC.

We understand the need to participate in and attend every rehearsal and performance.

We understand that we are making a commitment through May 2012.

We have enclosed appropriate medical information and will return the medical form (by September 28) for use in case of an emergency.

We agree to make full payment of tuition by 9/29/10 unless a financial aid request has been approved.

Chamber: $515 Concert Choir: $445 Chorale: $340 Chorus: $325
--

We understand that no fees can be refunded in case of withdrawal from the choir at any time.

We agree to return all copyrighted music books and octavos in good condition, and will pay replacement cost of lost or damaged items.

We understand there is an official concert uniform which must be ordered through the FCCC, girls (please see Handbook). We understand that each chorister is responsible for being in full concert dress at each concert and any chorister not in full concert dress will not be permitted to sing in the concert.

We hereby indemnify and release the FCCC, its directors, employees, members and parent volunteers from any liability, including personal injury, property damage, costs or expenses (including attorney fees) resulting from any action taken on behalf of my child or otherwise arising out of my child's participation in any FCCC activity or performance.
